INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

The mission of Student Assistance and Support Services (SASS) is to assist, support and advocate for students experiencing a broad range of issues, concerns or challenges interfering with a student's ability to be successful academically or personally.

Requesting to relocate from King suite 118, 205 & 206 to Cone suite 349 (1,423 sf):

- Current staff – (5) professional staff members, (1) admin support
- King suite 118 does not allow for accommodating additional personnel
- (2) New hires (shown in current staff) – Assistant Director for Case Management & Assistant Director Case Financial Wellness – 2 additional offices in Cone suite 349 can accommodate new hires
- Hiring of a graduate assistance currently on hold – no space for them to meet with students in private – propose room 349E (239 sf) for GA's
- Request that conference room 348C (238 sf) be allocated to Cone University Center for shared, scheduled use.
- Only renovation work would be for a new door from the existing office suite to the main corridor, Student Affairs would fund.

JAMIL NINER PANTRY

124 John Kirk (house) was allocated for use as the Niner Pantry in 2015 for 2 years

- The pantry provides assistance to UNC Charlotte undergraduate and graduate students who struggle with food insecurity.
- The Pantry operates Monday, Wednesday & Thursday from 2-5 pm
- Student volunteers are supervised by UNC Charlotte staff at all times.

The UNC Charlotte Endowment has agreed to extend the MOU for an additional two calendar years (2021 & 2022).

A Memorandum of Understanding has been completed

JAMIL NINER PANTRY

Our mission at the Jamil Niner Student Pantry is to ensure food security, human dignity, and well-being on campus by providing in-need UNC Charlotte students with healthy, culturally appropriate emergency food.

1. To serve students' food insecurity needs.
2. To raise awareness and to educate the campus as well as the community about food insecurity.
3. To provide an on-campus site for service learning.
